PROFILE

Performance-driven Computer Science graduate (CGPA: 3.61) with expert-level national exit exam certification (79/100). I offer a unique combination of full-stack development mastery and hands-on networking expertise. Focused on bridging the gap between Machine Learning theory and real-world software execution to drive technical efficiency.

INTERNSHIP & VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Network & IT Intern

Ethio Telecom June 1 – June 30, 2024

- › Worked directly within Ethio Telecom, gaining hands-on experience with network configuration and routing protocols used in live telecom infrastructure.
- › Assisted senior engineers in monitoring and maintaining enterprise-level network systems, helping to sustain optimal uptime across the organization.
- › Participated in fault-finding tasks, diagnosing and resolving connectivity issues under the supervision of experienced network engineers.

IT Volunteer

CTC – Madda Walabu University 2023 – 2026

- › Diagnosed and repaired fellow students' laptops over 3 years, resolving hardware and software faults to restore full functionality and minimize downtime.
- › Delivered practical tech tutorials covering software usage, computer troubleshooting, and basic networking concepts to peers with varying skill levels.

TECHNICAL PROJECTS

Smart Attendance System: Built a real-time facial recognition system achieving 90%+ accuracy using Python and OpenCV, eliminating manual attendance tracking entirely.

Classroom Management Platform: Architected a full-stack web app with role-based access control (student/lecturer/admin) and encrypted data storage using React and Node.js, serving an entire academic cohort.

Portfolio & Bot Automation: Developed a responsive personal portfolio integrated with a Telegram Bot that notifies in real-time when visitors interact with the site.

ML Research Projects: Designed and trained CNN and regression models for handwritten digit recognition and agricultural yield forecasting, applying results in academic research reports.

TO WHOMEVER IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing this recommendation letter for Bachu Eshetu Mihrete who is a BSc. Graduate of Computer Science from College of Computing, Madda Walabu University.

I have known him since 2023/2024 G.C as student of Computer Science while I was Instructor and head of the Department, Bachu Eshetu has been a decent, hardworking, sociable, highly committed brilliant with in his work and he has remarkable high commend in programming language skill and knowledge, professional of system development and design and efficient student. And he developed amazing Software has scored good grade in both Final Year Project I and II. So, I feel that he will make a good use of any career opportunity that is offered to him to benefit himself as well as his country. He is also a considerate person able to set along on well with people.

Thus, I strongly recommend Bachu Eshetu to anyone interested in recruiting him for academic or career programs, and I wish the best lucks in his future career that he so much deserves. Please feel free to contact me for further clarification at the following addresses.
